a department store. Some years ago there were two buildings in this area and only one was used as a store. Now the two stores are combined into one large bazaar type department store.
This happened about three or four years ago. It is called the Chuen Yeh Department Store (劝业商场) and is located at (和平路)

(滨江道)

. This large store uses a great amount of electric power.

electrical substations, which during the French regime were called Substation No 6 and Substation No 17, are still being used.
No 6 is on the street just to the west of the store and No 17 is in the alley to the rear of the store.

Another large user of electric power is the Tientsin Municipal Department Store

This 50X1-HUM

store is now called Tientsin Pei Ho Company and it belongs to the government. This store gets all the merchandise for, and administratively controls and supplies, the Chuen Yeh Department Store, which is one-half owned by the government and one-half owned by shareholders.

There is another store just south of the Chuen Yeh Department Store which has three or four floors. One-half of this store belongs to the government and one-half is privately owned. This store too is supplied by the Tientsin Pei Ho Company and is called Chung Yuan Company

This is commonly referred to in Tientsin as the Woman's and Children's Clothing Store.

The building [] identified as a government office, is not a government office. This is a former US-owned factory where they made carpets. They still make carpets and are a fairly large user of electricity. It could have been a government office at one time but the government keeps changing its offices. [] it is not a government office at this time []
